

KILLS CATARRH GERMS

Antiseptic Healing Treatment That Quickly Cures at Trifling Cost.

Catarrh is now known to be caused by disease germs and it may be cured only by an antiseptic treatment that will kill the catarrh germs and soothe and heal the irritated mucous membrane.

Nothing else combines the soothing and antiseptic powers in as perfect a degree as Mentholatum. Apply a little of this in the nasal passages on going to bed and it cures while you sleep. Then apply again in the morning and its curative and healing effect acts all day long.

A jar of Mentholatum costs only a trifle, 25 cents, and is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee of money back if it fails to do all that is claimed for it. It is a wonderful household remedy and is good for all inflammation, soreness, aches and pains.

PLEA FOR BUSINESS PEACE.

John Wanamaker Advises Merchants to Work for This End.

New York, Nov. 17.—A plea for peace in the business world was made by John Wanamaker of Philadelphia, former postmaster-general, at a luncheon given him yesterday afternoon by a number of prominent merchants from various parts of the country. He advocated an organization of the merchants of the United States to work for this end. He deplored the "widespread hatred engendered unfairly against Wall street and the trusts," which feeling, he said, paralyzed honorable business undertakings.

CHILD KILLED BY WHISKEY

Four Years Old Rutland Girl Drank Nearly Half Pint

AND DIED WITHIN 24 HOURS

When Parents of Mary Ricci Discovered What She Had Done They Put Her to Bed but Neglected to Call in a Physician for Some Hours.

Rutland, Nov. 17.—As the result of drinking the greater part of a half-pint of whiskey, four-year-old Mary Ricci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ricci, who was happily playing about Wednesday morning, lies in her last rest in the little front room at her home, 237 West street, surrounded by a sad group of friends of the parents, who watched their only child die at 1:15 o'clock yesterday morning.

The little girl drank the whiskey at about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, having discovered the bottle on a table within her reach, and was found by her mother a half hour later in an unconscious condition on the floor. She was put to bed, but no physician was secured until several hours later, when Dr. F. H. Gehlhardt was called. Dr. N. J. Delahanty and Dr. H. R. Ryan were secured later and the doctors worked over the child for hours but without avail. She never recovered consciousness.

BEGIN TODAY

That good old saying, "A stitch in time saves nine," is proved over and over in our daily life.

For example, when you begin to feel out of sorts, don't want to eat, and don't seem as strong as usual, if you would begin right away to use Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, you could easily put yourself in good trim again with one bottle, or less. But when you wait and grow worse all the time, it is bound to take more.

We just got a letter from Mrs. Mary Glyn of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who says: "When my health became run down last March, I took prompt action to improve it and was told that Vinol was the best thing to build me up. Using one bottle of Vinol has made me well and strong again."

Don't put it off another day. If you feel the need of more strength and better blood, or if one of your family is weak and sickly, Vinol will give renewed strength and energy. If it does not, we will give you back your money. Red Cross Pharmacy, Burt H. Wells, Prop., Barre, Vt.

8,000,000 NEED FOOD

Famine Threatens 20 Russian Provinces

THE OFFICIAL STATEMENT

Of Premier Kokovoff—Situation Is a Result of the Crop Failure—A Sum of $60,000,000 Needed to Insure Relief.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—Eight million persons are in need of immediate relief owing to the failure of the crops in twenty Russian provinces. This startling announcement was made in the Duma Wednesday evening by Premier Kokovoff in reply to questions concerning reports that famine threatened a wide area. The premier explained that the crops had failed completely in twelve provinces and partially in eight others. Of the 12,500,000 inhabitants of the affected territory 8,000,000 were in need of immediate relief. The necessary measures would require, the premier said, the expenditure of $60,000,000, of which amount the imperial exchequer would have to find $44,000,000. Half of the total was necessary at once to defray the cost of supplies already dispatched.

M. Kokovoff added that actual famine conditions were not widespread yet, but the sanitary situation was a cause of great anxiety and the government was making every effort to help the deprived people.

An Unusual Record for a Pile Remedy.

When Dr. J. S. Leonhardt of Lincoln, Nebr., located the cause of piles and found a successful inward remedy for piles, he had it put on sale under a strict guaranty of satisfaction. PLEAD GUILTY TO TARRING YOUNG WOMAN

Three of the Men Charged With Outrage Against Kansas School Teacher Acknowledge the Crime.

Lincoln Centre, Kan., Nov. 17.—Plea of guilty were suddenly announced in the circuit court here yesterday by three of the most prominent men accused in connection with the tarring of Miss Mary Chamberlain, the Shady Bend school teacher, last August. They are Everett G. Clark, president of a milling company, and Watson Scranton and Jay Fitzwater, farmers—all of Shady Bend. Judge Grover reserved sentence.

The pleas of guilty were entered after a vain effort for a change of venue in behalf of Everett Clark.

Miss Chamberlain was in court, accompanied by her mother and brother, Manille Chamberlain.

Since Miss Chamberlain was decoyed to a lonely spot on a country road, seized by a band of more than a dozen men, her clothing torn off and her body coated with tar, she has remained in close retirement in her home in the little Shady Bend community where she taught school, and where, it is said, her popularity with the men caused jealous wives and sweethearts to urge husbands and lovers to inflict on her the torture which created a storm of indignation through the state.

At the opening of court County Attorney McCausland stated that he had more than three hundred affidavits to offer to the court to prove that there is no reason why a fair trial should not be given in this county to all the accused men.

Lincoln Center is harboring larger crowds than ever appeared on a market or street fair day. The "tar party" and the criticism it has brought upon the country, and even upon the state, are more than ever the chief topic of discussion. The prominence of Mr. Clark, who is one of the wealthiest men in the county, and the fact that upon the outcome of his case will depend largely the fate of the others, has attracted most comment upon the Shady Bend miller.

SATURDAY "TOM"

BARREITES:

This is an invitation to come and meet "TOM" tomorrow

Don't wait to get a letter of introduction to me. Don't even be fussy about having a visiting card when you come. I am a good tailor, but a plain man and do not stand on ceremony myself. The number is Depot Square, formerly the Blue Store. The latch string will be hanging out to everybody.

In view of the widespread speculation which has been brewing since the publication of my four-line popular priced tailor notice yesterday, I consider that it is but proper that I devote in this opening announcement a few words of explanation as to my identity and my business methods.

It is just a little more than a year ago that I first came on East, to sift out the trade possibilities of the various New England cities, for future branches that I proposed adding to the chain of tailoring stores now owned by me in the Middle West.

My first venture was in Lowell, Mass., where I opened a store at 188 Merrimac street on the bitter cold first day of March last year. It has been successful beyond my anticipations and is to-day doing by far the largest tailoring business in that city.

Encouraged by a phenomenally good season, I decided to further extend. On September 1st I was again honored with the confidence and patronage of the public of another big city—Lawrence. Opening there on Essex street, I had the pleasure of setting down in my books a "first day's" business that I do not think has ever been equalled in the tailoring trade of the East.

To-morrow morning I am presenting myself before YOU for the first time. I am not now, nor have I in the past been, connected with any other business here. You will have to judge me as you find me.

I am asking myself, "Will history repeat? Will the splendid successes I have made in Lowell, Lawrence, North Adams, Burlington and other cities be augmented further by a success here in Barre?" The answer remains with you. I feel that you will be competent judges of goods. I say that my stock is a stock of WOOLENS. Your knowledge will teach you whether or not I am truthful. You will know whether or not I am giving you value for your money. Upon your judgment I shall stand or fall. I am ready to abide the result.

To make it worth your while to aid me in making my opening a successful one—I offer you an inducement that, so far as I have been able to find out, has never been made before by any tailor in this city. With every Suit or Top Coat ordered I will give a pair of ALL WOOL $5.00 PANTS FREE.

The price for a Suit or Top Coat that I am positive you cannot duplicate under $20, $22 or $25—will be

$15.00 for Suit or Overcoat

MADE TO YOUR MEASURE

ALL COATS TRIED ON BEFORE BEING FINISHED AND MADE IN OUR OWN WORKSHOP ON THE PREMISES

You will see here the finest line of Wooleens ever brought in through the doors of any tailoring store in this city. You will see an array of goods—NOT CULLED FROM "BANKRUPT STOCKS" or from some woolen jobber's table of "unmentionable"—but a clean fresh stock of honest wooleens bought within ten days, especially for the opening of this store. And you will find—not the few pieces of fabrics and the box of samples on cards, such as you are shown usually when you go to order your suit—but instead you will see nearly 1,000 different woolen styles—Worsteds, Clays, Diagonals, Tweeds, Cheviots and Serges, in the correct colorings for Fall—Grays, Browns, Blues and black. They will be shown in lengths so that you will be able to get an accurate idea of how they will look, made up. May I have the pleasure of showing them to you?
